Words and their Meanings

Any words or phrases with special meanings have been defined and are shown in bold. A list of defined words and their meanings is shown in the 'Definitions – Words with Special Meanings' section of the policy wording, a specimen of which is available on request from your broker or insurance intermediary.

The policy documentation can also be made available to you in large print, audio or Braille on request via your broker or insurance intermediary.

About the Unoccupied Policy

'Unoccupied' is a dedicated insurance policy which is designed to cover vacant residential homes and is available on short term policy periods. The policy covers the following:

- The buildings of your property
- Contents
- Your liabilities to the public and any domestic employees
- Legal Expenses

The policy will relate to those sections of the insurance which you request and we agree to insure.

Cover is based on specified perils and is available in a choice of three levels of cover “Bronze, Silver and Gold” (from basic to full perils) so it’s very important you discuss your requirements with your broker or insurance intermediary to ensure you get the right cover for you.

Period of Insurance

We offer flexible cover periods and 90 day, 180 day, 270 day and annual policies are available.

For annual policies renewal will be subject to the terms and conditions that apply at the time of renewal. For short term policies you will be given the option to extend for a further time period subject to the terms and conditions that apply at the time of the expiry of the policy.

The period of insurance will be stated on your policy schedule.

Your Policy Documentation

Information You Have Given Us

This quotation is based on the information that has been supplied to us by your broker or insurance intermediary.

In deciding to accept this policy and in setting the terms including premium we have relied on the information which you have provided to us. You must take care when answering any questions we ask by ensuring that any information provided is accurate and complete.

You must tell us within fourteen (14) days of you becoming aware of any changes in the information you have provided to us which happens before or during any period of insurance.

When we are notified of a change we will tell you if this affects your policy.

How to Make a Claim

To make a claim, you can contact us by telephone, email or post – please refer to the section 'How to Make a Claim' in your policy schedule for the contact details.

When notifying a claim, please provide your name, policy number (shown on your schedule), the name of your broker or insurance intermediary and with full details of the loss or damage.

There are a number of claims conditions that operate, please refer to the policy wording which explains your duties in the event of a claim and how we deal with your claim.

Cooling Off & Cancellation

Cooling-Off Period

If you find this insurance does not meet your requirements, you are entitled to cancel this insurance by notifying us via your broker or insurance intermediary in writing, by email or by telephone within 14 days of either the date you receive your policy documentation or the start of the period of insurance, whichever is the later.

Your broker or insurance intermediary contact details are shown on your schedule.

We will refund any premium you have paid, providing that you have not made a claim.

Cancellation

1. Cancellation of your policy by you:

You may cancel this policy at anytime by notifying us via your broker or insurance intermediary in writing, by email or by telephone.

Your broker or insurance intermediary contact details are shown on your schedule.

2. Cancellation of your policy by us:

We may cancel this policy or any part of it if there are serious grounds to do so by giving you 21 days written notice via your broker or insurance intermediary detailing the reason for cancellation by recorded delivery to the correspondence address stated in your latest schedule.

We will detail the reason for the cancellation in our written notice to your broker or insurance intermediary.

Examples of where we would cancel your policy are as follows:

1. Where Plum Underwriting has been unable to collect a premium payment following non-payment correspondence issued to you or your broker or insurance intermediary.
If you pay your premium to us via a direct debit facility, we will allow 21 days for the premium to be brought up to date. If you fail to do so we will cancel from the date at which you have paid the relevant premium.
2. A change in the information you have previously given us where we are able to demonstrate that we would not normally offer insurance.
3. Unacceptable behaviour by you such as abusive behaviour or language, intimidation or bullying of our staff or suppliers.
4. You have deliberately misrepresented any information given to us.
5. Your failure to cooperate with us in accordance with our claims conditions where it affects our ability to process your claim.
6. If you have acted fraudulent in any way.
7. You have deliberately or falsely overstated information given to us.

3. Cancellation by us following a fraudulent claim

If you make a fraudulent claim under this policy we will cancel your policy from the date of the fraudulent act and we will retain 100% of the premium.

4. Premium refund following cancellation of your policy:

In the event of cancellation by you, your premium refund will be calculated as follows:

If you cancel after the initial 14 day 'cooling off' period any refund will be on a proportional basis and always subject to the current period of insurance being claim free.

If you have made a claim in the period of insurance being cancelled we will retain 100% of the premium and no refund will be due to you.

In the event of cancellation by us, your premium refund will be calculated as follows:

Any refund will be on a proportional basis less the policy fee and always subject to the current period of insurance being claim free. If you have made a claim you will not be eligible for a refund and you must pay us any amount you still owe us for the period for which you have been insured.

Customer Service & Complaints Procedure
